After a family gathering in North Carolina, 14 family members tested positive for COVID-19. This graphic shows how far the virus spread over a 16-day period.